

LIGHT IN THE VALLEY

By Michele Wagner & Dwight Lilies Reference: Malachi 4:2

Intro/Interlude

Verse 1

We call it a valley our tears fall like rain
We're worn from the journey and weary from the pain
The lonely shadows fall as we descend to the valley
The stars are appearing above the distant hills
We rest by still water in lush and growing fields
The Shepherd watches as the sheep lie still, in the valley

Chorus

In the morning the Sun of Righteousness rises to lead us forth with healing in His wings
And in the valley the sun is shining bright
I see a ray of hope, with joy my spirit sings! There's light in the valley!

Verse 2

We look to the hilltop and hear the Shepherds' cry
He's calling us upward to meet the morning sky
For by His grace and by His strength we climb from the valley

Ending

There's light in the valley
Do you see His light?
Oh there's light in the valley! I see His light
There's light in the valley There's light in the valley!
